Barbara Kay Portrays Elizabeth Cady Stanton

Celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the passage of the 19th amendment, guaranteeing women's right to vote

Saturday, March 21 at 2:00pm in the Schweinfurth Museum at the Historical Village

Barbara Kay is a retired high school history teacher who brings famous women from history alive with her first person portrayals. Elizabeth Cady Stanton was an author, lecturer and chief philosopher of the women's rights and suffrage movements. She formulated the agenda for women's rights that guided the struggle well into the 20th century. Stanton met Susan B. Anthony in 1851 and the two quickly began collaboration on speeches, articles, and books that paved the way for the passage of the 19th amendment giving women the right to vote.

Sponsor:

Tom and Belinda Charleton

Free Admission, donations are appreciated

Jefferson County Historical Village Djchsvip14@gmail.com 1411 N. 27th St. Mt. Vernon, IL 62864

618-246-0033

historicjeffersoncountyil.com